And when Saul inquired of the Lard, the Lord answere hlm not, oeither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophcts. xxyiii. 0

There are two principsl opininns respecting the wrim and thumunim. One is, that these words denote the four rows of precious stones in the breastplate of the high-pricst, and are so cslled from their bridiancypsol perfection; which stones, in an appeal to crod in dimeuted his mind and will by some supernatural cases, margnce. Thus, as we know that upon each of the appeargnce. Thus, as we know that tpon each of the Jicob, it has been conjectured that the letcers formins the divine respanse became in sume way or other distheguished from the nther letters. The other principal opinion is, that the urim and thummim were two small orgcular lmsges similar to the teraphim, personifying revelation and truth, which were placed in the cavity or ponch formed by the folds of the breastplate, and which pttered oracles by a voice. Fitto. The latest opinion is ottered oracles by a voice. Fitto. The latest opinton is that of Professor Plumptre, who supposes the Urim to bave been a clear and colorless stone set in the hreastplate of the high-priest as a symbol of light, answering to the mystic searabrus in the pectoral plote of the anclent Lgyptian priests, and that the Thummim was an imsce corresponding to that worn by the priestly judges of Egypt rs a symbol of truth and purity of motive. By gazing steadfastly on these, he may havo been thrown Into a mysterious, half ecstatie state, akin to hypnotism, spirituat jltumination and insight. - It is not koown when spiritual julumination and insight. - It is not koown when no instance of it in the Seriptures, duriug the time of the first temple, and it certainly was not practiced during thas of the second.
